STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

The selection and appointments to Group-D posts are governed by the service rules of the concerned Departments. Different departments have prescribed different minimum age and educational qualifications for appointment to these posts. This causes a lot of inconvenience and financial burden on the candidates. With a view to have common age and educational qualifications as well as to ensure transparency in selection of candidates the Government of Haryana has decided to provide for common minimum age, common minimum educational qualifications and a transparent selection criteria along with some weightage for socio-economic status, experience and doing away with practice of interviews in case of Group-D posts.

MANOHAR LAL,
Chief Minister, Haryana.
